Agenda

From 3rd May 2024 until 24th May 2024 – taking knowledge test

In order to get the PEFC recognised chain of custody training certificate, participants shall pass the knowledge test (minimum score of 80%).

The digital recognised certificates will be sent to those participants that have passed the knowledge test within two weeks.

Successful participants will be added to the PEFC Register of trained auditors, reviewers and certification decision makers.

a) Scores between 65% and 79%: the participant shall review the training materials and the chain of custody related standards and re-take the knowledge test at no extra costs.

b) Scores less than 65%: the participant will need to re-take the training and the knowledge test. PEFC International will not charge you for retaking the knowledge test.
