The Categories

11. The contest consists of 5 categories:-

Category A: People & Forest

This category is open for images of people involved in the field of forestry responsible for the sustainable management and well-being of Malaysia’s forest resources. This category could include people at work such as foresters, forest rangers, forest researchers or auditors. In addition, it could also include shots of the indigenous people who have been living in or at the vicinity of the forest, and have a long tradition in caring for the forest. The image could also portray people at work who utilise modern technologies for managing and conserving Malaysia’s forest resources.

Category B: Forest & Forest Landscapes

This category is open for images capturing the beauty of forest and forest landscapes in Malaysia. The images could showcase forest in its natural beauty, diversity and uniqueness with regards to form and structure. For forest landscapes, the images could portray the geological or climatological features and natural environment of Malaysia’s forest.

Category C: Forest & Fauna

This category is meant for shots of the various animal species of Malaysia’s forest. The images, whether portraits or behaviour of animals in the wild, must be obtained under natural conditions, and in an ethical manner that places the wildlife’s welfare above the photographer’s desire to get the best shot.

Category D: Video - Wonders & Sounds of Nature

This category lets participants to experience the beauty of Malaysia’s tropical forest beyond still photographs. It welcomes video clips depicting the wonders and sounds of nature in Malaysia’s forest recorded using smartphone/tablet/drone/action cameras (e.g. GoPro etc), or a combination of mobile devices. The length of the clip must be at least 30 seconds and does not exceed 3 minutes. The video can be combined with text, effects or voice-over, depending on the producer’s creativity and in compliance with the relevant copyright laws.

Category E: Social Media (Facebook/Instagram) - #fortheloveofnature

This category invites social media users to take creative shots on how Malaysians do their bid to protect the environment and share them on Instagram and Facebook. The photos must be taken at Malaysia’s forest settings such as national parks or recreational parks. Each entry must be posted with the following hashtags: #mtccphotocontest2020 #fortheloveofnature. The results will be announced on MTCC’s Official Facebook Page and AdvancedImagesTravelution Facebook Page. The winners will be notified by PM (private message).
